Praise to the 'Esvagt Server' during rig move

Colleagues onboard the 'Esvagt Server' can hold their heads high after completing a rig move of the 'Crossway Eagle', a jack-up accommodation platform for Maersk Oil, operated by OSM.

"Thanks for the excellent teamwork – it has been a pleasure to see so many jobs come together."

These words of praise came from Bjørn Jensen, assistant crane operator on the 'Crossway Eagle', who shot the video and took the pictures.

The 'Esvagt Server' is working on a five-year anchor handling contract anchor for Maersk Oil.
