Sisse Mai: New CFO with blue background

ESVAGT's values highly rated by new CFO.

ESVAGT appoints Sisse Mai as Chief Financial Officer. Her educational background includes a degree in Financial Accounting and a M.Sc. in Business Administration and Auditing, and she has known and had a positive opinion of the shipping company for several years:

‘ESVAGT’s safety and rescue missions are well-known in the industry, and ESVAGT is a highly attractive brand. Nothing is more purposeful than delivering safety at sea and hereby saving human lives, so when the opportunity to become part of ESVAGT arose, I didn't hesitate', says Sisse Mai.

With her, she brings experience from a CFO position in the shipping industry and lately, from the environmental industry. She very much looks forward to returning to Blue Denmark and to working in an industry where conditions are dictated by the global market forces, and where the waters navigated require constant course adjustments depending on market trends, commercial conditions and operational considerations.

'At the same time, it is a big asset that ESVAGT has a concrete strategy for the future, a solid value foundation, and a DNA that I can only side with', Sisse Mai says.
